

NARRATIVE

Definition: A narrative is a type of writing that _____ and _____.

Plot: The _____ that create a story.

This is the typical order of events in a story.

- a. Exposition
- b. Inciting incident
- c. Rising action
- d. Climax
- e. Falling action
- f. Resolution
- g. Denouement

a. EXPOSITION *contains all of the necessary _____

_____ that is needed to understand the story

*includes the _____ and _____.

* _____ is usually placed here-under which characters are _____ with _____

they have to overcome.

CHARACTERS

The main character in a story (often the hero)

The character that opposes the hero (bad guy)

A friend or sidekick that adds comedy or tension relief

CONFLICT

	Conflict that pits one person against another person.
	An internal conflict where a person must choose between doing something good or bad.
	The values of society are being questioned and fought against. A run-in with forces of nature as fire, tornado, etc.

a. INCITING INCIDENT *An event that starts your hero to “ _____ ” and take action.

*It _____ your hero out of his _____
 _____.

c. RISING ACTION *Contains _____ anything that _____ or obstacles

* _____ characters are introduced

*The _____ may also be dealing with _____ _____ at this time.

d. CLIMAX *contains the _____
of the story.

* _____ in the story reaches a _____.

*is centered around a _____ or _____.

e. FALLING ACTION *Happens _____

*Often contains the _____ - _____ of the climax.

* _____ to side-stories and _____ are tied up.

f. RESOLUTION *Comes after the _____ *Resolves the main _____.

g. DENOUEMENT * This is the _____ part of a story...final resolution.

*Every _____ and each

Conflict is _____ (or sometimes not...)